

Information from the Holderness Historical Society scrapbook regarding the Bicentennial Celebration.

Chairman: Frank Webster

Historic Pamphlet Comm.: Susan Keith, Chair; Margaret Howe and Mrs. Arthur Forbes

Historical Display Comm: Ruth Knapp

Dance Comm.: Richard Gordon

Barbeque: Rip Richards and the Pemi Fish and Game Club

Parade Comm.: Arthur Forbes, marshal; Earl Jenkins and Rip Richards, chairman

Entertainment Comm.: Kip Hawkins, Holderness fire Department; Robert Ford, Selectman

Aquacade Comm: Squam Lakes Association

Spiritual Observance Comm.: Rev. Grant Clough

Publicity: Don Hagerman

Secretary: Faith Clough

Events

Throughout: Historical Display at Town Hall. Early names in the History of H.: Shepard, Livermore, Smith, Fowle, Piper, Eaton, Curry and Calley

Friday:

- Street Dance, August 11, 8 – 11:30; Catholic Church Parking Lot with George Dicey form Ashland (square and round dancing) Exhibit of folk dancing from the girls at Camp Winnetaska under the direction of Florence Pearce; Tickets $.50 adults, free for 12 and under.

Saturday:

- Parade at 1: a sizeable number of floats and bands, all civic and camp organizations and individuals urged to prepare floats or skits. Other towns invited.
- HCS: 3 Formal Recognition of the Day; Honor Col. Alan B. Shepard, wife, from Derry, parents of Astronaut Commander Alan B. Shepard, Jr.
- Pemi Bowman; penny search among others; fire house polo
- conclusion with sports competition at Holderness Central School;
- barbeque at Pemi fish and game Club

Sunday:

- Boat Parade; formed in Cotton Cove, through channel, to Little Squam.
- Water Show: Camp Deerwood, P/R Ski Service, and others
- Vesper Service: Rev. Grant Clough and speaker Rev. Sid Lovett; Rockywold – Deephaven singers

